FACES OF RESILIENCE: Many thanks to all those that supported the 'living book' exhibition last Sunday in the Church hall and who stayed on for our liturgy at 3:00pm. The tea and cakes were much appreciated and they helped to create a really warm and friendly atmosphere. The Ukrainian women who joined us were very touched and grateful. We must keep them in our prayers. Our thanks also go to the Justice and Peace group who organised this event.

CAFOD 'CANCEL DEBT, CHOOSE HOPE' CAMPAIGN: Two members of the Justice and Peace Group will speak after Mass next weekend (28th - 29th June) to explain the CAFOD 'Cancel Debt, Choose Hope' Campaign. Pope Francis spoke with great passion regarding this movement, explaining that 'it is a matter of justice' to cut the debt of the 54 countries who are facing a debt crisis. At the end of each Mass, all members of the congregation will be asked to leave the church via the fire exit at the back of the Church Hall and, if they wish to do so, sign a petition 'Cancel Debt, Choose Hope'. Thank you for your support.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION: Please note the following weekly Mass times of our neighboring Churches for times when there are no weekday Masses at our Church:
